

WEXNER GRADUATE FELLOWSHIP/DAVIDSON SCHOLARS PROGRAM

SIX WORD MEMOIRS

MAY 11, 2021 | CLASS 33 ORIENTATION

Are there particular events or series of events that had a lasting impact on your Jewish identity and commitments? Can you point to a “peak moment” that launched you on a journey to exercise leadership in Jewish life?

DIMITRY EKSHUTUT: Institutions serve people, not vice versa

MICHAEL FINGERMAN: Jewish life can elevate the meaning

ANNIE FORTNOW: Transforming my view of social justice

RACHEL FRIED: Choosing to be the next link

ZACH GOLDBERGER: From the south to the Midwest

ARIELLE KRULE: Teenage dreams realized, maybe I love this

ALEX MALANYCH: Get in the mikveh kid.

KAREN MARTIN: Just an assistant, invited to the table

ROZEETA MAVASHEV: I had to so I did

SASS OROL: I didn't know myself in words"

AIDEN PINK: Someone took a chance on me

SARAH POLLACK: Jacksonville has great shellfish, no thanks

JARED SKOFF: Supporting neurodiverse leaders, childhood to staff

EVAN TRAYLOR: My very first youth group event

JERICHO VINCENT: At the podium, balanced between worlds.

CHLOE ZELKHA: Had to go back to death, here.
